Classes and Teachers

Cartooning: Students in this class will learn to draw cartoon characters, character development, basic drawing skills and will create their own comic strip.

Teachers: Savannah Huffman and Melody Valdilles assisted by Colleen Kelly and Angi Yowell.

Savannah is a college student majoring in Graphic Design, has studied cartooning and is looking forward to working sharing her knowledge with others. Melody has studied cartooning with Angi Yowell and will be a wonderful addition to this teaching team

Clogging: Students will learn basic beginners clogging steps. Each student can bring a pair of tennis shoes and can get taps glued on. Taps are not required but free if desired.

Teachers: Felecia Dixson, Jeanine Collier, Robin Hammock Mary Ann Edwards and other members of Ozark Spirit Cloggers. These ladies are professional cloggers who have a total of 50 years experience in clogging and teaching clogging.

Fiddle: Depending on the level of the student, he/she will learn the basics of fiddle playing by ear including how to tune, hold, play lead fiddle tunes, multiple harmony parts, back-up and fillers. This class will play with the bluegrass group. *Bring a violin to class. If you do not have one, we may be able to loan you one or give information as to where you can rent one.

Teacher: Grace Caudill - Grace has been playing fiddle since the age of 11. She has played with Rosa String Works, Midnight Flight and Men of the Week. She currently teaches fiddle and other string instruments at "andFLEW! Studios" and has taught other workshops.

Guitar: You will learn the guitar from the ground up. You will learn how to tune, how to hold and strum the instrument, how to follow chord charts and play solo. You will learn to understand the the keyboard so that you can play what you hear. This class will also play with the bluegrass group. *You will need to bring a guitar to class. If you do not have one, we may be able to lend one or Merle's Music can rent you one.

Teacher: Alan Singer - Dr. Singer has a bachelors degree in classical guitar. He has studied with the best and has taught at the elementary, high school and university level. He is currently teaching at Merle's Music.

Photography: Students will learn to use light as a paint brush and how to see a composition like an artist by correct use of line, form, color, body, texture, space and more. *Bring a digital camera with a SD4 or better card to class.

Teacher: Connie Roberts - Connie has won many honors for her photos including best of show and 1st place in MS&T Photo Contest.

Theatre: Students will learn the basics of theatre including performance, technique preparation, audition and more.

Teacher: Kim Nisbett and others from Fine Linen Drama - Kim has a B.A. in Fine Arts and is the Director of Fine Linen Drama.

Mandolin: Students will learn to tune, chord, keep time and play lead on the mandolin. They will also play with the bluegrass group. *Bring a mandolin to class if you have one. If you do not have one, Jerry Rosa has several that he can loan but enroll early.

Teacher: Jerry Rosa - Learn a uniquely American type of music from a master musician with a lifetime of performing. Jerry is the director of Rosa String Works and has hosted his own bluegrass show on radio. He also builds string instruments.

Marvelous Masques: Students will make two different kinds of masks - one elegant and one animal. They will start from scratch and create unique masks reflecting their own personality.

Teacher: Sandra Ford assisted by Sue Stormes and Gini Gaunt - The very brightly painted furniture that you have seen in many local shows is the work of Sandra Ford. Her work has been winning awards in Washington, Illinois and Missouri for some time now.

Pizazz With Pastel: Students will hear a short history of pastel and see examples of many of the materials. They will learn how to do an underpainting and different techniques of pastel. They will do a plein air painting and learn how to work from a photo. Supplies are furnished but please let us know if you can bring an easel.

Teacher: Lynn Granneman - Lynn is a professional artist who works in several mediums but primarily pastel. She has a B.S. in Art Education and has been teaching privately for many years. Lynn's work has been chosen for exhibitions from coast to coast and is featured in many private collections.

Upright Bass: Students will learn the basics of bluegrass bass and how to play in a bluegrass band or jam. Students will also play with the bluegrass group. * If you have a bass, bring it to class. If not, we have a few loaners. Enroll early.

Teacher: Renee Caudill - Mrs Caudill has played with several bluegrass groups including Jerry Rosa Stringworks, Blackwater and Windy Ridge. She founded Roots Bluegrass School.
